CENTURY BMW REEDY RIVER CONCERTS RETURN TO DOWNTOWN GREENVILLE

Free weekly event to showcase variety of musical entertainment

GREENVILLE (SC) – Music fans can enjoy live musical entertainment all summer long at the Century BMW Reedy River Concerts. The free series returns to the newly completed TD Stage behind the Peace Center and will showcase 13 weeks of local and regional musical entertainers, including the Robbie Ducey Band, Lionz of Zion, Mystic Vibrations and True Blues. The summer series kicks off June 5 and runs every Wednesday through August from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

“Century BMW is proud to partner with the City on one of its longest running and most popular music series, the Reedy River Concerts,” said General Manager Tommy Kuranoff. “Century BMW invites you to stop by to meet our new management staff who can provide you with a true BMW experience.”

Concert attendees are invited to come early, bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Pets are not allowed at City special events. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information visit events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on Facebook and Twitter. A complete schedule of this season’s concerts is listed below.
